

Dear Friends,

We at Doncaster are making all effort to make it a very entertaining and interesting event for every one! It's going to be a star studded event. We are expecting a very famous star from India to attend the meeting. The details will be disclosed once the plans are finalised.

Please register at the earliest to avoid increased charges from 1st June 2012. I have attached the invitation letter and registration form along with other details. The forms has been also posted to all addresses in our directory.

With Regards,

Vireshwar
